FOOTBALL MASS MEETINGFRIDAY AT 4.50*UNIVERSITY HALL*All Classes Suspended from 4.50 to 5.40.*DOWNED by the FARMERS*Western Maryland Wins*Hard Fought Game

In a hard fought game on University Field Saturday afternoon, the George Washington University foot ball team suffered its first defeat by the small score of 6 to 0. The team which administered the defeat, so keenly felt by the entire squad, was the strong Western Maryland College aggregation. Because of the fact that both teams used line plays most of the time, the game was one of the fiercest ever seen on University Field. Time after time men were injured so badly that play was stopped until they could recover. Coach Rorke substituted eight or ten men.

The loss of the game may be attributed directly to several fumbles. On the first kick-off there was a fumble which gave the ball to the visitors, and they came very near making a touch-down then and there. Fields fell on the ball when he should have picked it up and ran with it, as there was plenty of room for a ten or fifteen yard run. The ball was advanced by Maryland to within a few feet of the goal line, when Roberts fumbled, and one of the Orange and Blue players fell on it. West kicked it out of danger. Later on, Stevenson fumbled, and the ball went to the other side. Kirkman fumbled on almost every punt. In the second half after the ball had been carried from Washington's one yard line by splendid line rushes to a safe distance from the goal, Winston fumbled on a direct pass, and Meyers, the fast right end of the visitors, fell on the ball and big Roberts soon rushed over the goal. Foot ball critics agree upon the fact that fumbles lost the game.

There was plenty of fine individual playing by the home team, but as a team the boys lacked the snap and vim which they displayed in the Randolph-Macon game. Had they played as fast Saturday as they did last Monday, the score would have been fully as large in their favor. Stevenson probably made the best showing of any of the men. His end runs were spectacular and never failed to gain. He bucked the tackles for fine gains on more than one occasion, and when his side was on the defensive he was in every play. Frank West pleased his most ardent admirers by the splendid manner in which he punted the ball when called upon. He took plenty of time, and all of his kicks sent the ball soaring through the air for thirty-five yards or more. His deliberate style of punting is very effective, inasmuch as it gives the ends plenty of time to get down the field. Van Vleit, "Billy" West or Kirkman were always ready to tackle the man who caught Frank's long punts, and on no occasion did the runner gain any distance after catching the ball. Kirkman distinguished himself by the swiftness which he displayed in getting down under the flying ball and tackling the awaiting Marylander. Woods at center played a great game. Several times he broke through the opposing line, and not a gain was made past him.

Frank Law was undoubtedly missed at left tackle. Most of the rushes of big Roberts were made through left tackle, where a substitute was playing. Law injured his shoulder very badly last week and was unable to play Saturday. He is a fine defensive player, and many of the attacks of the enemy on left tackle would have been successfully blocked had he been playing. Coach Rorke tried several new men. Morris, who came out the first of last week, was put in at left guard in the second half, and played a good game for a recruit. He will possibly become a regular.

THE GAME.

Roberts kicked off to George Washington. His punt was short and Kilgore let it pass him. Fields tried to fall on the ball, but failed, and one of the Maryland boys obtained possession of it on George Washington's 40 yard line. The tandem formation was put into execution immediately, the giant Roberts carrying the ball at all times. He went through left tackle at will but when on the 10 yard line, fumbled, and Van Vleit was on the ball before he could recover himself. After a few plays, West punted to Higgins, who was downed in his tracks. A fierce punting duel followed between West and Roberts, the former getting the best of it, as the ball was in the visitors' territory most of the time. The first half ended with the ball in the middle of the field.

The second half witnessed some splendid defensive playing by the Orange and Blue pig-skin artists. Kirkman kicked-off to Western Maryland and the ball was brought by steady gains to Washington's one yard line. Chief Roberts had three downs to get the ball over. Three times he made mighty plunges at the Orange and Blue line, but it held like a stone wall. His 220 pounds of brawn and muscle counted for nothing against that splendid stand. Here Kirkman made the greatest mistake of the game. With the ball resting on the one yard line, it was necessary to pass the ball behind the goal line to the backs. Failure to pass the ball across the line would have been a "safety" for Maryland. Kirkman should have punted the ball. A good punt would have sent the pig skin forty yards from the goal, and the subsequent touchdown would most likely have been prevented. He tried, instead, to break through the line and on Winston's fumble, Maryland secured the ball and pushed Roberts over for a touch-down.

After Roberts kicked an easy goal, there remained but a few minutes of play. The ball was kicked off to George Washington, and then Stevenson and Winston pulled off some splendid end runs. Three plays of this character netted the Orange and Blue 60 yards, and when time was called the ball rested on Maryland's 30 yard line. Three minutes longer would probably have given the home team a touchdown.

The game was lost, but no dishonor is attached to the defeat. The home team played a splendid game, considering the fact that they were pitted against an eleven which outweighed them more than 10 pounds to the man. There is no getting away from the fact that Roberts is the whole Western Maryland team. With him out of the game, George Washington would have had a walk-over. He gained almost all of the ground for his team, and his defensive work was superb.

Next Saturday, George Washington plays Richmond College, and another victory will most likely be added to the record of the new University. Richmond is not as strong this year as they were last year, while our team is 50 per cent. stronger.

The Advisory Council of the Athletic Association has held two meetings during the past week. At the first an organization was effected as follows:

President, Dr. Phillips.

Vice-President, Professor Earnest.

Secretary, D. G. Sutton.

Treasurer, Chapin Brown.

At the meeting on Tuesday night, some important business was transacted. It was decided that hereafter admission to the stand at the Field will be made 25 cents extra.

On Friday, at 5 p. m. a mass meeting is to be held in the University Hall. All classes are to be suspended and everybody is expected there. President Garrison, of the Athletic Association will preside and Alexander, Rorke and others will speak.

The University Hatchet

From The Times, October 9th.

The first copies of the "University Hatchet," the official organ of George Washington University, were published last Wednesday.

The paper is a continuance of last year's "Weekly Columbian," and a marked improvement is shown both in cover and reading matter.

The cover is bright and catchy, being a clever design of the University colors, orange and blue.

The paper itself contains the weekly schedule of the University, editorial pages, athletic news, dramatic, and fraternal notes, in short, everything that a college paper should have, save an "exchange" page, which will probably be supplied later.

The paper contains several clever illustrations. It reflects credit on its editors.

Our Baseball Captain

At a meeting of the base ball team, held after the close of last years' season, Mr. E. T. Stevenson was elected captain for the coming year.

Mr. Stevenson is a member of the Ki Yi Class and is well known throughout the University. He has always been interested in athletics, having played quarter back in foot ball at Nebraska, where he went before entering George Washington, half back on our team of last year and first base on the Varsity ball team. Under his direction a prosperous base ball season may be looked for.

Columbian College

Enosinian Society

The first meeting of the year of the Enosinian Debating Society, of Columbian College, was held Friday evening, October 7th, in the West Hall of the Administration building. The meeting was called to order at 8.30 by the retiring Vice-President, Miss Ridout, who appointed Miss Clara Barber extemporaneous speaker of the evening, with the topic "Memories of a Summer Vacation." This was followed by the election of officers for the first term, with this result:

President, Mr. C. W. Whitmore.

Vice-President, Miss Adele Taylor.

Secretary, Mr. Carl Block.

Treasurer, Mr. Bennett.

Critic Mr. Maubinney

Librarian, Miss Clara Barber.

Sergeant-at-Arms, Mr. Fulton.

Editors of the "Enosinian Bee," First, Mr. Curtiss, Second, Miss Edith Ridout.

The question to be debated at the next meeting, Friday, October 21st, is "Resolved, That cabinet members ought to have seats the right to speak in Congress, with the following speakers:

Affirmative—Miss Ridout, Mr. Curtis.

Negative—Mr. Whitmore, Miss Clara Barber.

For the information of new students, it may be well to state that the society is one of the oldest institutions, if not the very oldest, in the University, dating from the foundation of Columbian College, in 1821. Membership is open to all students of Columbian College, and applications should be presented in writing to the Secretary, Mr. Carl Block. Several applications have already been received and it seems likely that Enosinian is entering upon one of its most prosperous years in its history.

Junior Meeting

The Junior Class, of Columbian College, met for the first time Monday, October 10th, at 6.30 in the College library. As all the members were not present it was thought best to defer the election of officers for the year until a later meeting, especially as it is hoped that those of last year's Juniors who do not graduate this year will join the class. The President, Mr. Hemmick, appointed a committee, consisting of Miss Clara Barber, and Mr. Whitmore, to meet representatives from the other class, with a view to merging the two.

Sophomore Election

The Sophomore class, Columbian College, held its first business meeting Monday afternoon, for the purpose of organizing the class. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Stonebreaker, last year's Vice-President. After some discussion, it was decided that all students in the college who were entering upon their second year's work, whether day or afternoon students, should be considered members of the Sophomore class. The election of officers came next, which resulted in the choice of the following officers: President, Mr. Newbold; Vice-President, Mr. Bragaw; Secretary, Miss McCleary; Treasurer, Miss Birch. It was then decided to hold a social in the near future, after which the meeting adjourned.

Inter-Class Games

A joint meeting of the classes of '07 and '08, College, was held in University Hall, last Wednesday evening, October 5th. Mr. F. W. Albert, '05, presided and Mr. E. H. King, '07, served as Secretary. The object of the meeting was to arrange for a Sophomore-Freshman football game.

The presiding officer introduced Mr. E. A. Chase, of the Law Department, who spoke briefly on the advantages of inter-class games in building up college spirit and aiding University athletics. Mr. Albert supplemented this talk with a few pointed observations along the same line. It was then agreed that a committee be elected, one man from each class, to arrange with the football officials for a game between the Sophomores and Freshmen. Mr. Newbold for the Sophomores and Mr. Frank West, for the Freshmen were elected unanimously to serve on this committee.

The attendance was large and the meeting enthusiastic. It was evidently the purpose of the students present to make the inter-class contests as spirited and sportsmanlike as possible. Last year games on both gridiron and diamond between '06 and '07—the first in the history of the College—were notable successes. But there is every likelihood that the games this year will attract still more support, both from the athletes and the student body. It was distinctly the desire of everyone present that inter-class games be from now on annual features of the College life.

The Columbian Women.

The first business meeting of "The Columbian Women" for this season was held in the University building, Monday afternoon, October 10th. Annual reports were given by the different officers and chairmen of committees. The Treasurer reported a large amount of money on hand and it was voted to add enough to The "Columbian Womens' Scholarship Fund" to make that fund three hundred and twenty-five dollars.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Miss Janet McWilliams; First Vice-President, Miss W. H. Herron; Second Vice-President, Mrs. J. W. Holcombe; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. E. A. Hill; Recording Secretary, Miss Ethel Hilyer; Historian, Miss E. H. Turner.

After the meeting adjourned a number of the members went to the University hospital which the President of the University and Trustees decided last April to have named for "The Columbian Women," in recognition of the twenty-six hundred dollars raised by the organization for the equipment of the original hospital.

The Co Eds

Several days after the opening of college, the upper-class girls entertained the Freshmen girls at a luncheon. Dr. Carroll kindly gave the privilege of his room, thus adding one more to the many delightful hours we have all spent there. Miss Barber, Miss McCleary, Miss Ridout, and Miss Bethune, were the committee on entertainment, and in true good fairy style dispensed the good things which had been bountifully supplied.

The luncheon was concluded with toasts, Miss McIlhenny acting as toast mistress, a position which she filled charmingly. Miss DeForest responding for the Senior Class, welcomed the new girls into the Life of the University. Miss McCleary proposed a toast to "The Faculty," after having introduced its members to the new girls, in an inimitable way. Miss Bethune gave the words of caution and advice to the Freshmen. Miss Ladd responded for the "George Washington University," and Miss Harrington for "University Spirit," both in most happy manner. Miss Margaret White was the unfortunate one chosen to respond for the new girls, but acquitted herself with great credit—for a Freshman. The luncheon was concluded by pledging—with lemonade—a toast to the prosperity of the George Washington University," during the year of 1904-'05.

It is seldom that the college girls are all brought together, and the occasion of forgetting class distinctions in pride and love for our Almer Mater was delightful and beneficial to all.

On Saturday, the first of October, Miss Rollins entertained the college girls at her beautiful country home, in Falls Church. After a dainty luncheon, which was served in buffet style on the porch, a delightful afternoon was spent in walking and playing tennis and croquet. Those present were: Misses Watkins, Moyeur, Bethune, McMullen, McIlhenny, Fields, McPherson, Taylor, Swartout, Person, White, Hurley, Merrill, Heilprin, Barber, McCleary, Evans, Helen Evans, McCoy, Cochran, and Rollins.

On Saturday evening, October 8th, Miss Barber entertained a number of her college friends at her home, 703 East Capitol street. A unique feature of the evening's entertainment was a trip, in imagination, to the various theatres, where the succeeding acts of the drama were exemplified by the guests in turn. Much merriment was afforded by the lurid melodramas which resulted from the combined efforts of several persons. After the singing of college songs, refreshments were served. Among those present were: Misses McCoy, Bethune, Albert, Taylor, McPherson, Merrill, Cochran, White, Beale, Longhran, McIlhenny, McCleary, Stevens, Watkins, Hoyt, and Barber.

Miss Constance Adams and Miss Ethel Gallagher, both of the class of 1904, have obtained positions as teachers, the former in Massachusetts, the latter in Maine.

It is to be hoped that the loss of the game to Western Maryland on Saturday will not bring about the same result as defeats in former times—that of a greatly decreased attendance at our games. The victory over Randolph Mason seemed to have a good effect and on Saturday University Field boasted of more visitors than she had had for a long time. Through a little bad judgment and some hard luck our team was defeated but in spite of this, we have a good, strong team, probably the best we have ever had, and they were only downed by the slightest margin. Are we now to desert the men who fought for us because they lost one game? Now is the time when encouragement must be given them. If they realize that the University is back of them, win or lose, depend upon it, they will win. Richmond has a good team and the struggle is bound to be a hard one. The presence of a strong and loyal band of rooters may mean the winning of the game. Don't let anything stop you. Make up your mind that you are going to support the team and show it by coming out. Every man in the school should be at University Field on Saturday.

One thing which has been woefully apparent at our games is the lack of a yell. There has been no cheering to speak of and its absence is to be partly explained on this score. A few students here and there have gotten together and improvised yells which lasted for a minute and no longer. The locomotive which has been used, will hardly do. It is clumsy and has not the proper swing. The old Columbian yells are but little better, and even if they were, they are now out of place.

This is a matter which should command the interest and attention of the whole student body. THE HATCHET would like to offer a suggestion with a view to doing something in the matter. It is this: Let the Class Presidents on behalf of all the classes offer a suitable prize for a University yell. In the contest of last year, started by the 1907 Medical Class, several good yells were brought out and in this instance an even better result might be hoped for.

Whatever action is taken, it must be at once. We are in the midst of the foot ball season, the very time when the yelling is the most needed. In a month we go to Georgetown. By the 19th of November we must have a yell; a yell which every one will know and which fifteen hundred students will give that day as our team appears on the field.

Our first two issues have been distributed with the compliments of the management to all the students registered up to date and to all the members of the Faculty. Hereafter the subscription list will be made up from last year's Weekly Columbian list, with the addition of the new students. Last year, many who subscribed late requested back numbers so as to complete their files. These requests we were not able to fill. Subscriptions should come in early in order that such requests may be met this year. As long as the supply lasts each subscriber will be accommodated with the back numbers he has not secured.

Debating Notes

The Columbian Debating Society held its first regular meeting of the year last Friday evening in the Jurisprudence Hall. There was a large enrollment of members, particularly from the first year law, and the enthusiasm manifested at the meeting indicates a very successful year in debating for this society. The principal business of the evening was the consideration of the report of a committee at the close of last year presenting a draft for a new constitution, and final action on the draft with various amendments thereto will be taken on next Friday evening.

During the course of the evening Mr. Edelstein made an address of welcome to the visitors of the first year law and made some remarks relative to the object of the society, the nature of the work, and its past achievements.

The Needham Debating Society held their first meeting on last Friday evening in Hall A, of the Law Building. Outside of the appointment of standing committees, very little business was transacted. A volunteer team will open the debates on next Friday evening.

The following questions will be debated
"Resolved, That a man should vote the Republican ticket because it is the best party."

Affirmative.—Mr. Beeler, Mr. Bone, Mr. Christian.

Negative.—Mr. Woods, Mr. Hellerstedt, Mr. Patterson.

All members are urgently requested to be in attendance in readiness to participate and the presence of visitors is respectfully solicited.

Mr. Jesse W. Barrett, formerly editor of the Weekly Columbian, is being warmly supported by his friends of the Columbian Debating Society for president. The election for officers of that society takes place on Friday, October 21st, and an exciting campaign is anticipated. Mr. Tellier has been mentioned as an opposing candidate.

Mr. Milton M. Dearing, of Missouri, who won the first prize in the prize debate of May, 1903, and who did such effective work on the team that defeated Virginia last February, was recently appointed Secretary of the Ninth Civil Service District, with headquarters at St. Louis, Mo. Mr. Dearing's appointment will result in quite a loss to the Columbian Debating Society, as he would doubtless have won a place on the team against Georgetown this year and assisted in wresting another victory from our rivals.

Mr. Harold J. Pack, an alumnus of the Departments of Law and Jurisprudence, of this University, was recently appointed Civilian Assistant to the Paymaster-General of the Navy, to fill the vacancy created by the appointment of the former incumbent of this office, Mr. N. S. Faucett, as Deputy Treasurer of the Isthmian Canal commission. Mr. Pack is an excellent example of a self-made man, and this promotion from stenographer to Civilian Assistant to the Paymaster-General of the Navy is based entirely upon merit, and is a fitting recognition of his marked mental and executive ability.

Those who associated with Mr. Pack during his connection with this University will doubtless remember him as a man of keen analytical powers, quick to perceive natural divisions of any topic up for discussion, and of good judgment. As a debater, Mr. Pack's work was characterized by reasoning rather than by oratory. He appealed to one's judgment rather than to one's emotions. His arguments were incisive and they were expressed in clear, crisp sentences which usually carried conviction. He has done good work for the University as a debater, having been a member of the team that defeated the University of Virginia in February last, and his friends extend him their congratulations on his recent appointment.

Law Notes

Elections in the Law classes are near at hand and candidates at work. In the third year the probable candidates are Bellar and Woods. Friends of both men seem confident.

There is some talk of holding the election earlier this year. Every one seems willing.

In the Second year class, things are stirring, too. There are several aspirants and all hustling for the place. Flowers seems to be the most talked of at present.

The First year class seems to be a little slow in getting together, as is usual with the Freshmen.

The Third year men are delighted with the plan of Professor Vance, to have no lectures in Real Property and to quiz four hours per week. Professor Clephane has also announced his intention to depend on conference work entirely in Equity, Pleading and Practice.

A census of the voting students of the Law Department has been taken. It shows nearly five hundred votes with preferences about equally divided between Republicans and Democrats. It is understood that an effort will be made to organize a Republican Club within a short time. All those interested are asked to talk it up and hold themselves in readiness for the call. These clubs are being organized in many of the Universities and are proving quite successful.

Attention! Democrats!

The Democrats of the District of Columbia invite the Democratic students of this University to be present at a ratification meeting, at Convention Hall, Thursday evening, October 13th. It is desired that the students assemble in front of this University at 7 p. m., on that evening and proceed en masse to the hall.

Professor Tucker, of the Faculty of George Washington University, has been invited to address the meeting.

Sigma Chi

The local Chapter of Sigma Chi entertained a number of its friends at a smoker, Saturday night. The occasion was especially noteworthy because it was a farewell event in the house they now occupy. They are about to move into larger quarters and will soon be at home to friends at Nineteenth and M streets.

Before college opened the Chapter had a theatre party at the opening of "The College Widow," George Ade, a very enthusiastic brother, being their host.

Theta Delta Chi

Theta Delta Chi entertained, last Friday evening, for the first time this season, at its new home, 1203 New Hampshire avenue. Many friends of the fraternity in the college and a number of graduate Theta Delta were present. A large part of the evening was spent in music and songs after which a collation was served. At a late hour the guests departed, and everybody reported a good time.

Psi Omega

The officers and members of the Beta Gamma Chapter of the Psi Omega Dental Fraternity will give an informal smoker, at their Frat house, 1226 Fifteenth street, N. W., Saturday evening, October, 15th, 1904.

We have three agents at work for subscriptions. Mr. C. W. Whitmore, of Columbian College; Mr. W. A. Boyd, of Medical Department; and Mr. A. M. Beeler, of the Law Department. Any one of the editors will gladly take your subscription or it can either be mailed direct to the manager or dropped in the news boxes, in the hallways.

Pi Beta Phi

On Wednesday evening, October 5th, the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity entertained in the library of the University building, for the Freshmen and their mothers, the College Faculty and their wives, and its patronesses. The library was tastefully decorated with ferns and carnations, and the walls were adorned with numerous pennants and flags in wine and blue, bearing the letters of the Fraternity.

The receiving line consisted of Miss McPherson, president of the active chapter, Miss Frisbee and Miss Evans, officers of the Alumnae Association, Miss Turner, ex-Grand President of the Fraternity, and Miss Barber, Vice-President of the active chapter.

During the evening, a musical program was informally given. Miss Kelly, Miss Watkins, and Miss Taylor gave piano selections in a most acceptable way. Miss McCoy and Miss Bethune sang, the numbers of each being enthusiastically received and encored.

Refreshments were served, after which dancing was indulged in. The Fraternity was glad of the opportunity to welcome the new girls thus formally into the life of the University.

Medical Notes

At a meeting of the Senior Medical Class Monday, Mr. W. J. French was elected President, Mr. H. E. Baldwin, Vice-President, and Mr. G. I. Jones Secretary. The other officers will be elected at the next meeting.

The Ki Yis Elect

On Tuesday evening, the Third year Medical Class, better known as Ki Yis, held their first class meeting.

President Machler, after bringing the meeting to order, called upon the Secretary for his report, which contained a synopsis of the class history of last year. The report of the Treasurer was read and denoting a balance on hand was approved. The class then proceeded to the election of officers, with the following results:

President, Hiram McCollum.

First Vice-President, Frank E. Winter.

Second Vice-President, Ben C. Perry.

Secretary, L. B. McAfee.

Treasurer, R. M. Gass.

Mr. McCollum made a graceful speech of acceptance and thanks and proved a splendid presiding officer.

If the University colors are changed to Buff and Blue, the Ki Yis have determined to adopt the Orange and Blue for the class colors, and for their class pin the decision is to favor a hatchet.

The meeting was well attended and enthusiasm ran high, denoting that the class does not intend to fall back from its former position.

Election in '07

At a meeting held on Monday night, the Class of 1907, Department of Medicine, the following officers were elected:

President, Edward Comstock Wilson, of New York; Vice-President, Herbert James Bryson, of Pennsylvania; Secretary, Joseph Allen Smith, of North Dakota; Treasurer, Charles Lyman Watson, of District of Columbia; Historian, Paul Anderson, of Illinois; Sergeant-at-Arms, Richard Charles Weithaus, of New York; Executive Committee: William A. Boyd, of North Carolina, Chairman; Herbert Stratford Forrer, of Illinois, Thomas Francis Smith, of Florida.

Up to the present time the Histological Laboratory work has been done in the same room with the Bacteriological work. In order to give more room to the students of both classes, the Histological apparatus has been moved to another room. The new arrangement is certainly an improvement over the old one.

Mr. James A. Emery, Second year Medical, is at present Acting Chief of the Bio-Chemical Division of the Department of Agriculture.

The Alumni

Mr. George Carroll Todd, B. S., '99, LL. B. '02, who stood at the head of his law class during the entire three years of his course, has just returned from a trip to Alaska. Since his graduation in law Mr. Todd has been engaged in the Department of Justice in the preparation of several important briefs for the Government, in cases in the Supreme Court of the United States and his trip to Alaska was of an official nature.

Mr. Frederick J. Eichelberger, LL. B. '03, is now connected in a legal capacity with the probate and trust department of the Washington Loan and Trust Company of this city.

Lieutenant Harry J. McKenny, of the College Class of 1900, is now stationed with his command in the Phillipines, whither Mrs. McKenny, who also pursued courses in the College, has accompanied her husband.

Mr. Hubert Marcy Snow, LL. B. '04, has removed to New York City, to enter the practice of his profession and is connected with one of the busy firms of Wall street.

Mr. Frank Graham Butts, LL. B. '02, has just announced his association with the real estate firm of Wescott, Wilcox and Heiston, of this city. Mr. Butts has been engaged in the business of real estate, loans, and insurance for some time and he will now represent one of the leading firms in Washington.

Mr. George W. Gordon, of the College Class of 1899, after graduating from the Harvard Law School, has settled in the practice of his profession at Chicago, with offices in the Title and Trust Building.

Mr. Robert Farnham, Preparatory School, '94, who subsequently graduated from Lehigh, is now Assistant Engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad in this City.

The Hospital

On July 1st, the Hospital assumed a new management, with the following officers and staff:

Dr. W. F. R. Phillips, Superintendent.
Miss M. R. Struble, Superintendent of Nurses.
Dr. L. H. Taylor, Class of 1903, Resident Physician.

Pharmacist, Adam Kemble, Class of 1905.
Clerk, Glenn I. Jones, Class of 1905.
Assistant Clerk, Paul Anderson, Class of 1907.
Matron, Miss Morris.

Dean Tucker presided at the World's Congress of Lawyers, which met at St. Louis, some weeks ago and every speaker who had been chosen to address that distinguished body was a member of the Faculty of Department of Jurisprudence and Diplomacy, of the George Washington University. With the exception of the school of Diplomacy in Paris, France, this is the only institution in the world that teaches the science of Diplomacy.

From October 29th to the 31th, Columbia University will celebrate the 150th anniversary of its foundation. Corner stones for the several new dormitories will be laid and at these exercises it is expected that about 20,000 people will be present. On the 29th occurs a foot ball game between Columbia and Yale.

A department of Domestic Science is to be established at the University of Wisconsin.

It is said that more than eight hundred students will accompany the Iowa university team to Chicago, on Saturday next, to see the game between Iowa and Chicago.

For the new school of Mines, at Columbia University, a four story fire proof building will be erected. A mine is to be dug under the campus, in which shafts will be sunk under the direction of students. This will render unnecessary visits to the west for practical mining.

The Faculty of the University of Illinois are considering a plan to give four credits to the Editor in Chief and three to the Assistant Editor of the University newspaper.

Coming to the Theatres

Next week, Miss Lulu Glaser comes to the Columbia in her new success, "A Madcap Princess."

Mr. Robert Edeson will be seen at the National, in "Ransom's Folly," by Richard Harding Davis.

Billy B. Van, in the "Errand Boy," will be the offering at the Lafayette.

Chases' will have a big drawing card in Enigmarelle, supplemented by Helena Frederick, Clayton White and Marie Stuart, etc.

At the Academy, "The Fatal Wedding," will be seen again.
